Answer: Following people were tried in the king's court:

- The merchant whose house was burgled: Because his house's wall was weak and it fell upon the burglar and killed him
  - The bricklayer who built the wall: Because he built a wall which was weak and which collapsed killing the burglar
  - The dancing girl: Because she distracted the bricklayer with her jingling anklets by walking up and down the road where bricklayer was laying the wall
  - The goldsmith: Because he didn't complete the dancing girl's order on time and so she had to go to the goldsmith a dozen times.
  - The merchant whose house was burgled (second time): because his father persuaded the goldsmith to finish his order first thereby delaying the dancing girl's order. Since the merchant's father died, the merchant had to be executed in his father's place
  - The disciple: Because the merchant was too thin to be executed by the newly made stake and a fat man was required to fit the stake. The disciple was very fat, hence he was caught

6. How does the guru manage to save his disciple's life?

Answer: The guru tries to confuse the king by expressing his desire to be killed first. Then to further confuse the king he tells the story of becoming the king in the next incarnation. Apparently it may sound like a case of pure lie to save your dear one's life. But if we go deeper consciously or unconsciously the sage is trying to save everybody's life in the kingdom. Ultimately he is able to pull everybody out of the misery of living in the kingdom of fools.
